

Expand Your Personal and Professional Connections

Presented by Executive Women's Golf Association (EWGA)

Golf and EWGA Cleveland provide a fun and rewarding venue for women seeking to expand their personal and professional connections.

It is spring, and time to renew, revive and refresh yourself! With the tough economy, how will you expand your personal and professional connections and growth in the next several months? Have you ever considered combining professional growth with personal development on the golf course, in a fun, non-judgmental environment and at convenient venues?

The EWGA (Executive Women's Golf Association), a nationwide group of close to 20,000 members, provides you with a vehicle to do just that, and more, through its local chapters! Whether you need to learn the game, or are already an advanced player, EWGA Cleveland can provide you with the tools and support to grow. From learning the game through EWGA-sponsored lessons and mentoring, to meeting new connections through weekday evening league play and weekend golf outings, to sharpening your competitive skills through the EWGA Championship Series, EWGA provides so many more benefits to its members than any other women's golf league, anywhere.

Are you a student on a budget seeking to make some connections for future employment? Full-time students, either undergraduate or graduate level, enjoy a reduced membership fee.

EWGA is supportive of all women, and strongly says so through its Diversity Statement and Core Values.
